24 for 24: strong demand, even better margin setup make for an easy FY24 guide

Reiterate Rating: BUY | PO: 120.00 USD | Price: 109.04 USD

Gross margins rip, sales beat in 4Q

Freshpet (FRPT) reported 4Q23 sales +3% ahead of BofAe with adj. EBITDA of $31mm vs our $28mm estimate thanks to a whopping +820bps of YoY margin expansion. Gross margin was +320bps above our estimate with +270bps of the upside coming from logistics costs and another +90bps coming from quality costs as leverage and efficiencies delivered what we view as a step-function improvement to FRPT's cost structure. More importantly, in our view, FY23 operating cashflow of $76mil came in over 10% higher than we had forecasted, suggesting there could be less additional debt needed to fund capex plans and putting to bed altogether any lingering fears around additional share issuances that might be weighing on the stock.

Achievable FY24 guide further derisks FY27 targets

With good sales momentum into 1Q24 and fatter margins funding stepped-up marketing to start the year, we see little difficulty getting our model to FY24 guidance for sales of at least $950mm and adj. EBITDA of $100-110mm. By year's end, our forecast for adj. gross margin of 41.7% puts FRPT within 330ps of their FY27 target of 45%, implying about +110bps of expansion annually from FY25-27, noting FY23 margins expanded +400bps alone. At 31.3% of sales to end FY23, FRPT's adj. SG&A target of 25% by FY27 implies an average of 160bps of improvement annually after delivering 160bps of leverage in FY23 already. With expected commodity deflation this year we see little reason to believe FY24 won't make good progress towards that goal, helped in the out years by additional manufacturing lines that should also support topline.

1Q and FY24 modeling assumptions

For 1Q, we expect +28% sales growth to $214mm with adj. gross margin of 41.5% up +300bps YoY and adj. EBITDA of $16.6mm. This is a 1% increase to our prior topline estimate reflecting stronger momentum and about a month of carryover pricing, but -6% haircut to our EBITDA despite +140bps of better gross margin than previously assumed as mgmt. flows upside to marketing. For FY24, our $955mm sales estimate is a -1% reduction from prior as mgmt. tempers sales growth closer to its comfort zone of +25% YoY following FY23 growth of +40%. We forecast +175bps of gross margin expansion to 41.7% (prior 40.0%) and adj. EBITDA of $105.6mm up from $100mm previously.

Maintain Buy rating, raising PO to $120

Maintain Buy rating and raise PO to $120 from $100 based on our DCF model, now reflecting a 38x target CY25e EV/EBITDA, up 4.5x and justified in our view by faster progress and better visibility on margins and cashflow than before.

Company Sector

Food Producers

Company Description

Freshpet Inc. is a pet food company offering pet owners fresh, minimally processed, meat-based products. Through an end-to-end refrigerated supply chain, Freshpet sells its products to North American and European retailers across multiple channels such as grocery, mass, specialty, natural, etc., through company-owned branded refrigerators that replace standard shelving in the pet aisle or an end cap of a retail store. FRPT generated $595m in net revenues and $20m in adjusted EBITDA in 2022.

Investment Rationale

Our Buy rating is based on our view that FRPT is in a solid position to meet 2025 financial targets of $1.25bn net revenues and 11m households supported by pet food industry tailwinds, strong consumption growth rates, and retailer interest.

Price objective basis & risk

Freshpet, Inc. (FRPT)

Our $120 PO is based on our DCF model and reflects a target CY25e EV/EBITDA multiple of 38x, up 4.5x from our prior target. In our view, the higher multiple is driven by the lower rate environment and its impact on discount rates and continues to reflect sequentially improving margins and better visibility into cashflow, cost controls and fixed cost leverage which, alongside consistent double-digit topline growth, provides better visibility into upside vs 2027 targets. This multiple now sits above General Mills' Blue Buffalo deal transaction. We believe this premium is warranted given above-average growth and the lower EBITDA base, helped by clarity around what had been a previously murkier near-term profit outlook. Our DCF model uses a WACC of 7.9% and a terminal growth rate of 3.5%.

Upside risks to our PO are: faster-than-expected distribution gains at retailers, faster-than-expected consumer adoption of products, and higher-than-expected efficiencies from new capacity coming online.

Downside risks to our PO are: capacity coming online takes longer than expected, which could constrain sales targets, inflation and supply costs are higher than expected, competition impedes FRPT household penetration.

FUNDAMENTAL EQUITY OPINION KEY: Opinions include a Volatility Risk Rating, an Investment Rating and an Income Rating. VOLATILITY RISK RATINGS, indicators of potential price fluctuation, are: A - Low, B - Medium and C - High. INVESTMENT RATINGS reflect the analyst's assessment of both a stock's absolute total return potential as well as its attractiveness for investment relative to other stocks within its Coverage Cluster (defined below). Our investment ratings are: 1 - Buy stocks are expected to have a total return of at least 10% and are the most attractive stocks in the coverage cluster; 2 - Neutral stocks are expected to remain flat or increase in value and are less attractive than Buy rated stocks and 3 - Underperform stocks are the least attractive stocks in a coverage cluster. An investment rating of 6 (No Rating) indicates that a stock is no longer trading on the basis of fundamentals. Analysts assign investment ratings considering, among other things, the 0-12 month total return expectation for a stock and the firm's guidelines for ratings dispersions (shown in the table below). The current price objective for a stock should be referenced to better understand the total return expectation at any given time. The price objective reflects the analyst's view of the potential price appreciation (depreciation).

Investment rating	Total return expectation (within 12-month period of date of initial rating)	Ratings dispersion guidelines for coverage cluster ^{R2}
Buy	≥ 10%	≤ 70%
Neutral	≥ 0%	≤ 30%
Underperform	N/A	≥ 20%

^{R2} Ratings dispersions may vary from time to time where BofA Global Research believes it better reflects the investment prospects of stocks in a Coverage Cluster.

INCOME RATINGS, indicators of potential cash dividends, are: 7 - same/higher (dividend considered to be secure), 8 - same/lower (dividend not considered to be secure) and 9 - pays no cash dividend. Coverage Cluster is comprised of stocks covered by a single analyst or two or more analysts sharing a common industry, sector, region or other classification(s). A stock's coverage cluster is included in the most recent BofA Global Research report referencing the stock.

BofA ESGMeter Methodology:

ESGMeter is a proprietary metric based on quantitative analysis and fundamental analyst inputs that reflects our assessment of a company's Environmental, Social and Governance-related attributes. The ESGMeter is intended to indicate a company's likelihood of experiencing stronger financial stability (higher return on equity and lower earnings and price volatility) over the next three years relative to peer group. There are three ESGMeter levels - Low, Medium, and High - which indicate whether a company has attributes most likely to translate into superior financial stability (in the case of a High level) or weaker financial stability (in the case of a Low level) over the next three years relative to its peer group. A Medium level suggests that a company exhibits ESG characteristics that are likely associated with financial stability results in line with its peer group over the next three years. Full details of our methodology, financial stability definition and disclaimers are available at BofA ESGMeter methodology. ESGMeter is not indicative of a company's future stock price performance and is not an investment recommendation or rating.

ESGMeter is independent of the BofA Global Research fundamental equity analyst's investment rating, volatility risk rating, income rating or price objective for that company.
