4Q23 Earning Review: Regionals holding in, Vegas outperforms

Earnings Review

Q4 Gaming Recap: Some winners, some losers

With earnings from Caesars Entertainment (ticker: CZR), Churchill Downs (ticker: CHDN), and VICI Properties (ticker: VICI) we are near the end of reporting for U.S. Gaming stocks. Performance wise, we have seen 6 beats, and 4 misses, with RRR and WYNN reacting the best following and PENN and MGM lagging, on digital and regionals, respectively. Key themes are: 1) regionals better than feared in Q4, but several operators called out tough January weather, 2) Las Vegas demand remains healthy, but outperformance is skewed toward the high-end, 3) while Macau GGR was gaining momentum and commentary was positive, Chinese New Year came in below (very high) expectations, and 4) Online was robust despite event outcomes in Q4, and DraftKings was still able to raise \(see report\), while PENN is seeing much higher losses than anticipated \(see report\).

Churchill Downs: Historical racing and Exakta drive Q4

Churchill Downs (ticker: CHDN) reported Q4 Revenue/EBITDA of $561/$219M vs. BofA $556M/$207M. By segment, Gaming EBITDA of $113M was in line, Live /Historical racing EBITDA of $89M was ahead of our $80M, and TwinSpires EBITDA of $35M was ahead of our $33M despite a $14M revenue miss. We think the Exakta acquisition added $9M of EBITDA to the TwinSpires segment, vs. our estimate of $7-8M but was also a $5M cost benefit in the Live/Historical segment. Together, we estimate total annualized EBITDA from Exakta is ~$55M (implying a just 5x EBITDA purchase). On projects, CHDN delayed the opening of the Rose in N. Virginia to September, and raised the budget $60M to $460M, but will open with 1,650 machines, (500 more than previous). CHDN also announced the Owensboro facility will open with 600 HRMS, vs. prior plan of 300. We tweak our forward estimates slight lower largely on timing and January softness.

Caesars: Q4 in-line, optimistic for 2024 execution

Caesars (ticker: CZR) reported Q4 property Revenue/EBITDAR of $2.83B/$932M, in-line with our $2.83B/$930M. Recall, CZR preannounced Q4 in late Jan. \(see report\). Relative to peers, Caesars faced idiosyncratic challenges in both regionals and Las Vegas. In regionals, CZR margins were -105bps Y/Y vs. -51bps in Q3, while BYD and PENN both saw sequential improvement. In Vegas, CZR gaming revenue was down -16% Y/Y, while market wide GGR was up +11% in Q4. Management was surprisingly optimistic and expects both Las Vegas and regional EBITDA to be up for the year and Vegas up in Q1, but we have remained a bit more conservative as we see share gains still benefiting higher end properties in the market. Centaur and online remain key catalysts for 2024. Our '24 EBITDA est. goes down -1% on challenging January trends and Super Bowl hold.

VICI: Q4 beat, and 2024 guidance ahead of expectations

VICI reported Q4 Revenue/AFFO of $932M/$570M vs. our $930M/$554M, and provided 2024 AFFO guide of $2.34B/$2.22-2.25 per share vs our prior $2.30B/$2.26 per share. VICI reiterated they will opportunistically call the option on CZR's Centaur, but will not do it at a dilutive price. We think VICI is focused on growing through 1) expansion with existing gaming partners, specifically in Las Vegas as partners add rooms, F&B outlets, and more experiences, and 2) exploring growth with new / existing experiential partners.

Key Quotes

CZR re: January Trends: “January was a debacle from a weather standpoint. I think that's well understood. Across the market, you had about 3 of the 4 weeks that were significantly weather impacted.”

CZR re: Las Vegas outlook: “We're working to, frankly, improve our margins from here. We're really not thinking about degradation in margins, and we understand that the cost of the new union contract are a headwind there, but we are comfortable that we should be a grower in absolute EBITDA and on a similar footing in terms of margins in '24.”

CHDN re: January and February Trends: “...many of our regional gaming properties were impacted in January by inclement weather, which combined with the strong start to the year in 2023 will likely cause a difficult comparison for first quarter 2024 from a revenue and margin perspective. Despite the challenging start to the year, we are pleased with the results we've seen so far in February, and we remain optimistic for these properties for the balance of the year. “

CHDN re: the Consumer: “So when we think about our business, we're not particularly obsessed or worried about material changes in the quality of customer and the capabilities and the wallet of the customers sequentially. It's been pretty consistent over the last number of months.”

VICI re: Las Vegas: “Las Vegas is reaching a global critical mass that really no other place on earth right now rivals. Not Orlando, not Macau, the way things have evolved there. Las Vegas is a category of one and we are very happy to be the leading owner of real estate in a place that is a global category of one.”

Price objective basis & riskCaesars Entertainment Inc (CZR)

Our $50 PO is based on approximately 7.5x 2024E EV/EBITDAR. This multiple is slightly below CZR's long-term historical average and mid-cycle multiple.

Risks to the upside mainly revolve around management's ability to significantly exceed its forecast which could come from 1) de-levering, 2) late cycle growth in Las Vegas, 4) digital gaming share gains, 5) opportunistic asset sales, land sales, JVs or licensing deals Risks to the downside stem from 1) high financial and operating leverage, 2) lack of meaningful growth in digital market share 3) potential margin deterioration

Churchill Downs Incorporated (CHDN)

Our $135 PO is based on approximately 13x 2025E EBITDA. This is a premium to both CHDN's historic average valuation and domestic gaming peers which we view as warranted given 1) the one-of-a-kind and irreplaceable nature of the Kentucky Derby, 2) the substantial future growth pipeline coming via the company's HRM expansion and developments and 3) an established, unique, and profitable online growth platform in TwinSpires.

Downside risk to our PO comes from 1) slower and less profitable development of HRM facilities, 2) failure to maintain elevated EBITDA margins, and 3) a smaller valuation premium being awarded to category defining consumer companies. Upside risk is driven by 1) quicker and more meaningful EBITDA growth than we anticipate, 2) better ROI on project capex, and 3) continued multiple inflation across consumer stocks.

VICI Properties (VICI)

Our $34 PO is based on an approximate 7% cap rate. Our valuation reflects higher interest rates and is closer to other category leading triple-net REITs reflecting VICI's growth prospects following the MGP transaction.

Upside risks to our PO are new accretive M&A both within and outside of the CZR portfolio, as well as non-gaming assets. Downside risks to our PO are inability to execute M&A, overexposure to one operator, and general interest rate risks.

FUNDAMENTAL EQUITY OPINION KEY: Opinions include a Volatility Risk Rating, an Investment Rating and an Income Rating. VOLATILITY RISK RATINGS, indicators of potential price fluctuation, are: A - Low, B - Medium and C - High. INVESTMENT RATINGS reflect the analyst's assessment of both a stock's absolute total return potential as well as its attractiveness for investment relative to other stocks within its Coverage Cluster (defined below). Our investment ratings are: 1 - Buy stocks are expected to have a total return of at least 10% and are the most attractive stocks in the coverage cluster; 2 - Neutral stocks are expected to remain flat or increase in value and are less attractive than Buy rated stocks and 3 - Underperform stocks are the least attractive stocks in a coverage cluster. An investment rating of 6 (No Rating) indicates that a stock is no longer trading on the basis of fundamentals. Analysts assign investment ratings considering, among other things, the 0-12 month total return expectation for a stock and the firm's guidelines for ratings dispersions (shown in the table below). The current price objective for a stock should be referenced to better understand the total return expectation at any given time. The price objective reflects the analyst's view of the potential price appreciation (depreciation).

BofA ESGMeter Methodology:

ESGMeter is a proprietary metric based on quantitative analysis and fundamental analyst inputs that reflects our assessment of a company's Environmental, Social and Governance-related attributes. The ESGMeter is intended to indicate a company's likelihood of experiencing stronger financial stability (higher return on equity and lower earnings and price volatility) over the next three years relative to peer group. There are three ESGMeter levels - Low, Medium, and High - which indicate whether a company has attributes most likely to translate into superior financial stability (in the case of a High level) or weaker financial stability (in the case of a Low level) over the next three years relative to its peer group. A Medium level suggests that a company exhibits ESG characteristics that are likely associated with financial stability results in line with its peer group over the next three years. Full details of our methodology, financial stability definition and disclaimers are available at BofA ESGMeter methodology. ESGMeter is not indicative of a company's future stock price performance and is not an investment recommendation or rating. ESGMeter is independent of the BofA Global Research fundamental equity analyst's investment rating, volatility risk rating, income rating or price objective for that company.
