4Q23/FY23 Beats on taxes. FY24 Higher than BofA/in-line with Street.

Maintain Rating: UNDERPERFORM | PO: 31.00 USD | Price: 31.97 USD

4Q23/FY23 beat on taxes. Core performance misses target

We maintain Underperform on shares of diversified utility and renewable development company Avangrid (AGR) after 4Q23 earnings. We continue to view shares as relatively expensive with below-average long-term EPS growth and above-average risk profile. $0.97 4Q23 adj. EPS beat $0.87 BofA with very large deltas in each segment. The primary deltas vs BofA was +$0.12 taxes benefit, +$0.05 lower depreciation and unregulated interest, partially offset by -$0.06 worse renewables performance (+$0.07 thermal/trading and -$0.13 onshore operations), and -$0.07 lower rate changes. The 4Q23 guidance drivers did not state a tax benefit or lower depreciation. The 4Q23 drivers included +~$0.05 cost management vs O&M -$0.01 YoY. On a FY23 basis, corporate drag favorably declined +$0.12. $2.09 FY23 adj. EPS similarly beat the reduced $1.95-$2.08 guidance range and $2.00 BofA/$2.02 Consensus median. A beat vs guidance is favorable for AGR; however, the contribution from taxes to more than offset weak renewables & utility performance is cautious.

FY24 beats BofA/in-line with Street. Light on details

$2.17-$2.32 FY24 adjusted EPS guidance was initiated, a beat vs $2.16 BofA and in-line with $2.25 Consensus median. Limited driver details were provided and operating cost (O&M) optimization is stated as a positive driver versus our expectation of ~$0.30 unfavorably higher operating costs at the utilities YoY (-$0.25 2023A YoY). Vineyard Wind tax credits are not stated as a driver.

Management did not reaffirm the ~6-7% 2022-2025 EPS CAGR which implied $2.64 FY24 guidance, consistent with the post-PNM Resources (PNM) update at the start of January. We continue to expect a long-term EPS reset lower at the March 21st Capital Markets Day, adjacent with parent company Iberdrola's (IBE) event on March 21st.

Vineyard Wind offshore COD target not reaffirmed

Vineyard Wind previously had a ~September 2024 commercial operations date disclosed but is now described as "under construction" and 70% complete with 9 of 62 turbines installed (15%). There are currently four turbines generating power vs the guidance from last month of five turbines at full capacity in early 2024. AGR still states that it is evaluating the construction schedule and timing for its New England Clean Energy Connect (NECEC) transmission project while maintaining the ~$1.5Bn cost (now called a construction cost vs labeled a construction cost previously).

FY23 rate base higher, despite lower capex. FY24+ pulled.

FY23 rate base increased to $14.1Bn per the Factbook ($13.9Bn per the 4Q23 presentation) from $13.5Bn in the October 2023 update despite FY23 capex ~$100Mn lower than guidance. This is driven by +$400Mn New York Electric and +$200Mn Maine distribution. Avangrid no longer shows 2024-2025 capex and rate base guidance in its Factbook, likely due to the forthcoming Investor Day next month.

Timestamp: 22 February 2024 05:00AM EST

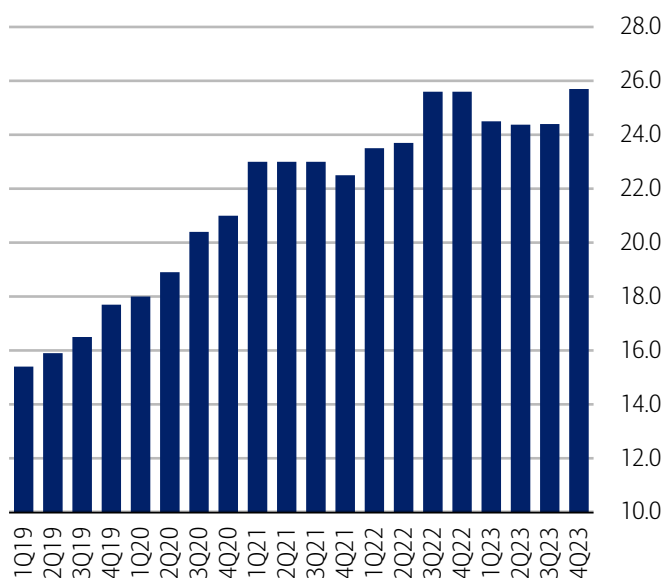

We expect the 4Q23 update to be relatively light on new information ahead of the March long-term guidance refresh. The lack of timelines for the major offshore wind and transmission projects will be topical as well as the detailed underlying assumptions and elements for 2024 EPS guidance.

Renewables pipeline grows for first time since 2022

QoQ Avangrid increased the pipeline +1.3GW (+5%) while installing +100MW. The solar pipeline increased +1GW and onshore wind rose +300MW. This is the first increase in the company's backlog in over one year (3Q22) and is a favorable development.

2023 wind production was the lowest on record for the company with a 27% capacity factor. While lower wind output was a sector theme in 2023 (concentrated in 2Q), Avangrid has had declining capacity factor for years as the portfolio ages. We expect a reset lower on expected wind production to be a feature of the new long-term EPS guidance.

Price objective basis & risk

Avangrid (AGR)

Our $31 PO is based on a 2026 sum of the parts analysis. The core utilities are valued on by applying discounts to the base sector P/E of 14.1x/14.2x for electric/gas due to below average growth and regulatory jurisdictions. Both electric and gas peer P/Es are grossed up +5% to reflect capital appreciation across the sector. The renewables are valued at approximately 10x EV/EBITDA, consistent with peers while offshore wind is valued using discounted cash flows at a 15% discount rate. Future potential value creation from the renewable development 'DevCo' is provided as well. Lastly parent/HoldCo financing offsets are netted-out.

Upside and downside risks to achievement of the PO and estimates are 1) earned ROEs and capital expenditures at the utilities, 2) utility capital expenditure forecasts, 3) regulatory/political/legislative outcomes, 4) equity and debt needs, 5) renewables construction - primarily offshore wind, 6) Iberdrola owns over 80% of AGR common stock, limiting float and presenting a potential for governance conflicts, despite the BoD being majority unaffiliated with Iberdrola. 7) natural disasters, 8) commodity and interest rate fluctuations, and 9) management changes.

BofA ESGMeter Methodology:

ESGMeter is a proprietary metric based on quantitative analysis and fundamental analyst inputs that reflects our assessment of a company's Environmental, Social and Governance-related attributes. The ESGMeter is intended to indicate a company's likelihood of experiencing stronger financial stability (higher return on equity and lower earnings and price volatility) over the next three years relative to peer group. There are three ESGMeter levels - Low, Medium, and High - which indicate whether a company has attributes most likely to translate into superior financial stability (in the case of a High level) or weaker financial stability (in the case of a Low level) over the next three years relative to its peer group. A Medium level suggests that a company exhibits ESG characteristics that are likely associated with financial stability results in line with its peer group over the next three years. Full details of our methodology, financial stability definition and disclaimers are available at BofA ESGMeter methodology. ESGMeter is not indicative of a company's future stock price performance and is not an investment recommendation or rating.

ESGMeter is independent of the BofA Global Research fundamental equity analyst's investment rating, volatility risk rating, income rating or price objective for that company.
