Entering the year with strong momentum

Reiterate Rating: BUY | PO: 110.00 USD | Price: 100.52 USD

Nice sales growth and a big GM beat

TJX posted another above-plan quarter; market share gains from higher transactions drove a 5% comp. Gross margin upside (+365bp vs our estimate of +220bp) was driven by lower freight costs, a shrink benefit, lower markdowns, and stronger markon. Management commented that 1Q is off to a good start, which is somewhat surprising given the February weather challenges. This momentum makes the F25 guidance look beatable. We reiterate our Buy rating as we view TJX as a market share gainer that is well positioned to benefit from trade-down and the high level of inventory availability.

F25 guidance of 2-3% comps in line with expectations

The company introduced F25 guidance for comps +2-3%, pretax margin of 10.9-11.0%, and EPS of $3.94-4.02. For 1Q, the company expects comps +2-3%, pretax margin of 10.5-10.6%, and EPS of $0.84-0.86. This guidance compares to our 1Q/F25 estimates of $0.85/$4.01. We see areas of opportunity for TJX to beat this guidance based on comp beats and continued profitability improvement. The company intends to increase its quarterly dividend by 13% to $.375/share, and announced plans to repurchase $2-2.5bn of shares during F25.

Ending the year on a high note

4Q EPS of $1.22 beat our $1.09 and guidance of $1.07-1.10. Comps beat across the board, with Marmaxx +5%, HomeGoods +7%, Canada +6%, and International +3%. The highlight of the quarter was gross margin +365bp to 29.8%. SG&A was slightly higher than our estimate to support the higher sales growth; wages and incentive compensation caused 180bp of deleverage. Inventory rose 1% per store, which we view as healthy given the strong 12% constant currency sales growth. This positioning provides the ability to chase and inventory availability was characterized as "outstanding."

Company Sector

Retailing-Specialty

Company Description

The TJX Companies is the largest global off-price retailer with over 3,000 stores worldwide. The company offers brand-name merchandise at a 20-60% discount to department and specialty store prices. Its stores are generally known for their treasure hunt experience. The core TJX customer is a middle to upper-middle income female, between 25 and 54 years old, who is fashion and value conscious.

Investment Rationale

Our Buy rating reflects our view that TJX will continue to drive comps higher domestically as it captures new customers with strong inventory management and excellent execution. Internationally, we expect the company to improve comps and segment operating margins for its Europe and Canada businesses. Longer term, we see the potential for global square footage growth across multiple concepts.

Price objective basis & risk

TJX Companies (TJX)

Our price objective of $110 reflects a P/E of 25x our F2026 (C2025) estimates. We believe TJX deserves to trade at a premium to specialty retailers (average 19x) as it has outperformed the retail industry domestically, has a solid international growth opportunity, significant square footage growth potential, a strong track record of returning excess cash to shareholders in a normalized environment, and high returns on invested capital.

Downside risks to our PO are weaker comps than we model, margin pressure as TJX absorbs wage and supply chain expenses, macro pressures weighing on consumer demand, as well as potential weakness in Europe.

^{R1} Issuers that were investment banking clients of BofA Securities or one of its affiliates within the past 12 months. For purposes of this Investment Rating Distribution, the coverage universe includes only stocks. A stock rated Neutral is included as a Hold, and a stock rated Underperform is included as a Sell.

FUNDAMENTAL EQUITY OPINION KEY: Opinions include a Volatility Risk Rating, an Investment Rating and an Income Rating. VOLATILITY RISK RATINGS, indicators of potential price fluctuation, are: A - Low, B - Medium and C - High. INVESTMENT RATINGS reflect the analyst's assessment of both a stock's absolute total return potential as well as its attractiveness for investment relative to other stocks within its Coverage Cluster (defined below). Our investment ratings are: 1 - Buy stocks are expected to have a total return of at least 10% and are the most attractive stocks in the coverage cluster; 2 - Neutral stocks are expected to remain flat or increase in value and are less attractive than Buy rated stocks and 3 - Underperform stocks are the least attractive stocks in a coverage cluster. An investment rating of 6 (No Rating) indicates that a stock is no longer trading on the basis of fundamentals. Analysts assign investment ratings considering, among other things, the 0-12 month total return expectation for a stock and the firm's guidelines for ratings dispersions (shown in the table below). The current price objective for a stock should be referenced to better understand the total return expectation at any given time. The price objective reflects the analyst's view of the potential price appreciation (depreciation).

Investment rating	Total return expectation (within 12-month period of date of initial rating)	Ratings dispersion guidelines for coverage cluster ^{R2}
Buy	≥ 10%	≤ 70%
Neutral	≥ 0%	≤ 30%
Underperform	N/A	≥ 20%

^{R2} Ratings dispersions may vary from time to time where BofA Global Research believes it better reflects the investment prospects of stocks in a Coverage Cluster.

INCOME RATINGS, indicators of potential cash dividends, are: 7 - same/higher (dividend considered to be secure), 8 - same/lower (dividend not considered to be secure) and 9 - pays no cash dividend. Coverage Cluster is comprised of stocks covered by a single analyst or two or more analysts sharing a common industry, sector, region or other classification(s). A stock's coverage cluster is included in the most recent BofA Global Research report referencing the stock.

This report may contain a short-term trading idea or recommendation, which highlights a specific near-term catalyst or event impacting the issuer or the market that is anticipated to have a short-term price impact on the equity securities of the issuer. Short-term trading ideas and recommendations are different from and do not affect a stock's fundamental equity rating, which reflects both a longer term total return expectation and attractiveness for investment relative to other stocks within its Coverage Cluster. Short-term trading ideas and recommendations may be more or less positive than a stock's fundamental equity rating.

BofA Securities is aware that the implementation of the ideas expressed in this report may depend upon an investor's ability to "short" securities or other financial instruments and that such action may be limited by regulations prohibiting or restricting "shortselling" in many jurisdictions. Investors are urged to seek advice regarding the applicability of such regulations prior to executing any short idea contained in this report.

BofA ESGMeter Methodology:

ESGMeter is a proprietary metric based on quantitative analysis and fundamental analyst inputs that reflects our assessment of a company's Environmental, Social and Governance-related attributes. The ESGMeter is intended to indicate a company's likelihood of experiencing stronger financial stability (higher return on equity and lower earnings and price volatility) over the next three years relative to peer group. There are three ESGMeter levels - Low, Medium, and High - which indicate whether a company has attributes most likely to translate into superior financial stability (in the case of a High level) or weaker financial stability (in the case of a Low level) over the next three years relative to its peer group. A Medium level suggests that a company exhibits ESG characteristics that are likely associated with financial stability results in line with its peer group over the next three years. Full details of our methodology, financial stability definition and disclaimers are available at BofA ESGMeter methodology. ESGMeter is not indicative of a company's future stock price performance and is not an investment recommendation or rating.

ESGMeter is independent of the BofA Global Research fundamental equity analyst's investment rating, volatility risk rating, income rating or price objective for that company.
