

American Eagle

Focused on driving operating leverage in '24

Reiterate Rating: NEUTRAL | PO: 21.00 USD | Price: 21.27 USD

Increasing ests on strong holiday results

AEO announced 4QTD sales (through 12/30) is up 8%, with American Eagle (AE) tracking up high single digits and Aerie up low teens. Coinciding with the better than expected holiday results, mgmt increased its 4Q sales outlook to +LDD (prev +HSD), which includes a 4ppt impact from the 53rd week. Operating profit is now expected to be $130mn (prev $105-115mn) as higher sales are modestly offset by higher SG&A. Momentum has continued into early January. We are increasing our 4Q23E/F24E EPS by $0.07/$0.12 respectively to $0.50/$1.58 to reflect higher sales and margins.

Holiday strength broad based

We expect to hear more detailed results on holiday results during the company's 4Q EPS call, but growth seems relatively balanced across categories at both brands. At AE, we sense women's is doing better than men's and bottoms is doing well overall. At Aerie, bodysuits and bras have had success QTD; we expect continued momentum in the Offline business (roughly 1/3 of Aerie sales). The ability to chase in a more normalized supply chain environment and cleaner inventory levels has helped both brands in 2H23.

Mgmt remains confident in '24 margin levers

We met with CFO Mike Mathias at the ICR conference. The main takeaway from our meeting was that the company remains confident in expanding gross margins and leveraging operating expenses in F24, in a LSD sales growth environment. Margin drivers include lower cotton costs and various cost savings initiatives, some of which we expect to hear more on in coming quarters. We think the SG&A control remains a prove it story. We expect incentive comp pressure in 1H24 and potential relief in 2H as mgmt expects to leverage this line item in '24.

Reiterate Neutral rating

We remain Neutral rated and see a balanced risk/reward with the stock trading at 5.7x EV/EBITDA (13.4x P/E). It is clear to us that both brands have underlying momentum but think the jury is still out on whether sales trends at both brands can continue at the current pace beyond F23 in an uncertain macro backdrop. We are increasing our PO to $21 (from $18), now based on 5.5x 2024E EV/EBITDA (prev 5x) to our higher estimates and a rerating in market multiples.

Company Sector

Retailing-Specialty

Company Description

American Eagle Outfitters is a retailer of high-quality clothing for 15-25 year old shoppers. The first American Eagle store opened in 1977 and the brand expanded into Canada in 2001. In 2006, the company rolled out its intimates sub-brand, Aerie.

Investment Rationale

We view the risk/reward as balanced as recent improvements in sales trends, particularly at Aerie, are offset by continued near term pressure on SG&A.

Price objective basis & risk

American Eagle (AEO)

Our $21 price objective is based on 5.5x our 2024E EV/EBITDA, in line with mall based retailers and the stock's historical average given a similar sales growth outlook as peers. We expect Aerie growth will remain strong given its unique niche and remain more concerned about the sustainability of American Eagle's recent trends if the promotional environment heats up across the industry.

Upside risks to our price objective are better comp growth at Aerie brand driving margin expansion, a faster than expected recovery at American Eagle, and an improvement in SG&A spend as a percentage of sales.

Downside risks are a more promotional environment than expected and a slower turn around at American Eagle and Aerie.

FUNDAMENTAL EQUITY OPINION KEY: Opinions include a Volatility Risk Rating, an Investment Rating and an Income Rating. VOLATILITY RISK RATINGS, indicators of potential price fluctuation, are: A - Low, B - Medium and C - High. INVESTMENT RATINGS reflect the analyst's assessment of both a stock's absolute total return potential as well as its attractiveness for investment relative to other stocks within its Coverage Cluster (defined below). Our investment ratings are: 1 - Buy stocks are expected to have a total return of at least 10% and are the most attractive stocks in the coverage cluster; 2 - Neutral stocks are expected to remain flat or increase in value and are less attractive than Buy rated stocks and 3 - Underperform stocks are the least attractive stocks in a coverage cluster. An investment rating of 6 (No Rating) indicates that a stock is no longer trading on the basis of fundamentals. Analysts assign investment ratings considering, among other things, the 0-12 month total return expectation for a stock and the firm's guidelines for ratings dispersions (shown in the table below). The current price objective for a stock should be referenced to better understand the total return expectation at any given time. The price objective reflects the analyst's view of the potential price appreciation (depreciation).

Investment rating	Total return expectation (within 12-month period of date of initial rating)	Ratings dispersion guidelines for coverage cluster ^{R2}
Buy	≥ 10%	≤ 70%
Neutral	≥ 0%	≤ 30%
Underperform	N/A	≥ 20%

^{R2} Ratings dispersions may vary from time to time where BofA Global Research believes it better reflects the investment prospects of stocks in a Coverage Cluster.

INCOME RATINGS, indicators of potential cash dividends, are: 7 - same/higher (dividend considered to be secure), 8 - same/lower (dividend not considered to be secure) and 9 - pays no cash dividend. Coverage Cluster is comprised of stocks covered by a single analyst or two or more analysts sharing a common industry, sector, region or other classification(s). A stock's coverage cluster is included in the most recent BofA Global Research report referencing the stock.

Short-term trading ideas and recommendations may be more or less positive than a stock's fundamental equity rating.

BofA Securities is aware that the implementation of the ideas expressed in this report may depend upon an investor's ability to "short" securities or other financial instruments and that such action may be limited by regulations prohibiting or restricting "shortselling" in many jurisdictions. BofA ESGMeter Methodology:

ESGMeter is a proprietary metric based on quantitative analysis and fundamental analyst inputs that reflects our assessment of a company's Environmental, Social and Governance-related attributes. The ESGMeter is intended to indicate a company's likelihood of experiencing stronger financial stability (higher return on equity and lower earnings and price volatility) over the next three years relative to peer group. There are three ESGMeter levels - Low, Medium, and High - which indicate whether a company has attributes most likely to translate into superior financial stability (in the case of a High level) or weaker financial stability (in the case of a Low level) over the next three years relative to its peer group. A Medium level suggests that a company exhibits ESG characteristics that are likely associated with financial stability results in line with its peer group over the next three years. Full details of our methodology, financial stability definition and disclaimers are available at BofA ESGMeter methodology. ESGMeter is not indicative of a company's future stock price performance and is not an investment recommendation or rating. ESGMeter is independent of the BofA Global Research fundamental equity analyst's investment rating, volatility risk rating, income rating or price objective for that company.
