First Look: Solid quarter + FCRD acquisition completed

Maintain Rating: BUY | PO: 16.00 USD | Price: 13.57 USD

Earnings beat, FCRD acquisition closed

Crescent Capital (CCAP) reported Q1 adjusted core EPS of $0.54, well above the BofA/Consensus forecast of $0.46. Relative to the BofA estimate, the beat was due to a stronger than expected interest income and dividend income, partially offset by a higher incentive fee. GAAP EPS was $0.24 (4.7% ROE) due to unrealized portfolio losses. Despite the noise from the completion of the FCRD acquisition, Q1 results were largely positive. Core profitability improved (10.5% core ROE), legacy credit was stable, and leverage was modestly higher. Overall, we continue to think CCAP is well positioned to gain share and deliver attractive risk-adjusted returns. Maintain Buy.

Acquisition of First Eagle closed

CCAP's previously announced acquisition of First Eagle Alternative Capital BDC (FCRD) (Crescent Capital BDC: Acquiring FCRD 05 October 2022) closed on March 9. The final purchase price was $129.5M and 6,174,187 shares were issued to complete the deal.

Credit continues to perform

Credit metrics remain solid with 2.7% of the portfolio on non-accrual (cost basis). This total includes investments from the acquired FCRD portfolio; excluding those, non-accruals were unchanged QoQ at 2.0% of the portfolio across 4 borrowers. FCRD's newly added portfolio included 4 borrowers on non-accrual status.

FCRD deal drives portfolio growth; yield higher

The portfolio (fair value) at Q1 was $1.6B, up 24% QoQ as a result of the closing of the FCRD acquisition. The acquisition added ~$335M of investments; excluding the deal, CCAP invested $29M in 3 existing portfolio companies and received $54.4M in exits/sales/repayments. Portfolio companies increased to 187 (129 at Q4) and the median portfolio company EBITDA declined to $26M from $30M. The portfolio remains 99% floating rate (unchanged QoQ) and is 89% first lien (90% at Q4). The portfolio yield (cost basis) was 11.4% at Q1, up from 10.8% in Q4.

NAV down 2.3% to $19.38; Q2 dividend stable at $0.41/sh

NAV/share declined 2.3% QoQ to $19.38 ($19.83 at Q4). This decline was due to the impact of the FCRD acquisition (-$0.28/share) as well as unrealized portfolio losses (-$0.31/share). The Q1 dividend was $0.41/share and the Q2 dividend will be $0.41/share

Liquidity solid, leverage up but at midpoint of range

At quarter-end, CCAP had $21M of unrestricted cash and $297M of undrawn capacity on its credit facilities. CCAP has a $50M unsecured note that matures in July 2023 which carries a 5.95% interest rate; no debt maturities in 2024 or 2025. Leverage at Q1 was 1.23x, up from 1.08x at Q4, but near the midpoint of their stated target range of 1.1x-1.4x. The increase in leverage was related to the FCRD acquisition.

BofA GLOBAL RESEARCH

Price objective basis & riskCrescent Capital BDC (CCAP)

Our $16 PO is based on a 0.8x multiple to current NAV/share, which is below the peer average of 0.95x. We think that is achievable as CCAP maintains stable margins and continued portfolio growth.

Downside risks to achieving our price objective are 1) material weakening in credit markets, 2) a significant slowdown in investment activity, 3) a deteriorating macroeconomic environment, 4) disruptions in the capital markets, and 5) weaker than expected investment performance.

FUNDAMENTAL EQUITY OPINION KEY: Opinions include a Volatility Risk Rating, an Investment Rating and an Income Rating. VOLATILITY RISK RATINGS, indicators of potential price fluctuation, are: A - Low, B - Medium and C - High. INVESTMENT RATINGS reflect the analyst's assessment of both a stock's absolute total return potential as well as its attractiveness for investment relative to other stocks within its Coverage Cluster (defined below). There are three investment ratings: 1 - Buy stocks are expected to have a total return of at least 10% and are the most attractive stocks in the coverage cluster; 2 - Neutral stocks are expected to remain flat or increase in value and are less attractive than Buy rated stocks and 3 - Underperform stocks are the least attractive stocks in a coverage cluster. Analysts assign investment ratings considering, among other things, the 0-12 month total return expectation for a stock and the firm's guidelines for ratings dispersions (shown in the table below). The current price objective for a stock should be referenced to better understand the total return expectation at any given time. The price objective reflects the analyst's view of the potential price appreciation (depreciation).

Investment rating	Total return expectation (within 12-month period of date of initial rating)	Ratings dispersion guidelines for coverage cluster ^{R2}
Buy	≥ 10%	≤ 70%
Neutral	≥ 0%	≤ 30%
Underperform	N/A	≥ 20%

^{R2} Ratings dispersions may vary from time to time where BofA Global Research believes it better reflects the investment prospects of stocks in a Coverage Cluster.

INCOME RATINGS, indicators of potential cash dividends, are: 7 - same/higher (dividend considered to be secure), 8 - same/lower (dividend not considered to be secure) and 9 - pays no cash dividend. Coverage Cluster is comprised of stocks covered by a single analyst or two or more analysts sharing a common industry, sector, region or other classification(s). A stock's coverage cluster is included in the most recent BofA Global Research report referencing the stock.

BofA ESGMeter Methodology:

ESGMeter is a proprietary metric based on quantitative analysis and fundamental analyst inputs that reflects our assessment of a company's Environmental, Social and Governance-related attributes. The ESGMeter is intended to indicate a company's likelihood of experiencing stronger financial stability (higher return on equity and lower earnings and price volatility) over the next three years relative to peer group. There are three ESGMeter levels - Low, Medium, and High - which indicate whether a company has attributes most likely to translate into superior financial stability (in the case of a High level) or weaker financial stability (in the case of a Low level) over the next three years relative to its peer group. A Medium level suggests that a company exhibits ESG characteristics that are likely associated with financial stability results in line with its peer group over the next three years. Full details of our methodology, financial stability definition and disclaimers are available at BofA ESGMeter methodology. ESGMeter is not indicative of a company's future stock price performance and is not an investment recommendation or rating. ESGMeter is independent of the BofA Global Research fundamental equity analyst's investment rating, volatility risk rating, income rating or price objective for that company.
