Some moving parts in '24 guide

Reiterate Rating: NEUTRAL | PO: 245.00 USD | Price: 239.11 USD

Solid 4Q offset by somewhat soft '24 revs guidance

We are not surprised to see shares trading down modestly after hours following soft 1Q/F24 revs guidance. While 4Q revs/adj. EPS was modestly ahead of consensus, and management commentary suggest an improving demand environment vs. 2023, initial guidance includes sequential decline in 1Q revs ex-incremental M&A (~$10M tailwind) and FX (~$10M-$15M headwind), as well as F24 y/y revs deceleration. While we continue to believe GLOB is a unique provider of digital IT Services with an industry leading growth profile, we view current valuation (~36x '24E P/E) as balanced; Neutral.

Initial revs guide somewhat underwhelming

Due to the recent devaluation in Argentine Peso (accounts for 200bps of total revs), we are not surprised to see initial guidance include 1Q q/q revs decline, before rebounding to 4%-5% q/q for the remaining quarters. However, the scope of the 1Q decline is modestly larger than anticipated. That said, initial '24 revs guide could reflect modest conservatism in our view, as guidance implies ~150bps y/y deceleration despite management commentary suggesting an improving demand outlook in 2024. Top client Disney is expected to see a return to growth after seeing a 4% decline in 2023.

Guidance by the numbers

Initial 1Q revs guide of "at least" $570M is below BofAe/Street at $575.4M/$576.8M. The implied q/q decline of 1.8% is driven by devaluation in the Argentine Peso and a lumpy 4Q license sale. These two factors collectively represent a ~$15M-$20M q/q headwind. Adj. op. margin guidance of 15%-16% is in line with BofAe/Street at 15.6%, and in-line with prior GLOB commentary of no more than 16%. This leads to 1Q adj. EPS guide of "at least" $1.53 vs. BofAe/Street at $1.50/$1.54. For F24, revs guide of $2,435M (16% y/y growth, including ~11% organic) is below BofAe/Street at $2,473M/$2,468M, with adj. op. margin guidance of 15%-16% vs. BofAe/Street at 16.1%/15.6%. F24 adj. EPS guide of "at least" $6.50 is below BofAe/Street at $6.72/$6.65.

AI remains a long-term tailwind to growth

AI remains a key priority for GLOB, with the company completing over 500 AI-centric projects to date. While these are largely in proof-of-concept stages, and modest in size, GLOB has seen solid pipeline growth, and now estimates ~10% of revenue is related to AI initiatives. See inside for estimate changes and more on 4Q results.

Company Sector

Computer Services

Company Description

GLOB is a global digital native IT Services provider with F23 revenues of $2.10B. GLOB provides digital strategy, design, and engineering services to clients with a service delivery model concentrated in Latin America. The company services several blue-chip clients including Disney (largest client at 8.7% of F23 revs) and Electronic Arts. As of F23, the company had a global billable headcount of 29,150.

Investment Rationale

GLOB delivered solid 4Q23 results, driven by strong demand for digital enterprise transformation across verticals. While GLOB has weathered the choppy demand environment well relative to peers, shares are trading meaningfully above the historical premium and absent near-term catalysts, we view the current valuation as balanced.

Decent 4Q print across the P&L

- 1Q revs increased 18.3% y/y to $580.7M, ahead of BofAe/Street/guide of $579M. On an organic basis, revs increased 11% y/y.
- Growth was led by Travel and Hospitality, up at 52.6% y/y to account for 10.6% of total revs. Media and Entertainment remained the largest at 20.8% of revs and increased 7.9% y/y.
- By geography, growth was led by EMEA at 71.4% y/y (to 17.2% of total revs), while N. America remained the largest at 57.4% of total (increasing 9.9% y/y).
- Adj. op. margin of 15.3% was 30bps below BofAe/Street and in-line with guide of 15%-16%, leading to adj. EPS of $1.62, modestly ahead of BofAe/Street at $1.60/$1.61 and guide of “at least” $1.60.
- 4Q FCF of $124.6M was meaningfully ahead of BofAe/Street at $83.6M/$82.5M, with F23 FCF/adj. NI conversion of 77% above ~60% target.
- Following 4Q results and management commentary, we adjust our F24 revs/adj. EPS estimates to $2,435M/$6.51 from $2,473M/$6.72 prior. We also roll out initial F26 revs/adj. EPS estimates of $3,624M/$10.17.
- We maintain our $245 PO, now based on 30x C25E P/E (35x C24E prior) and our DCF. Our multiple reflects a premium to the comp group, justified in our view by GLOB’s strong growth profile. Our DCF uses a WACC of 13.0% (no change) and terminal growth rate of 3% (no change).

Price objective basis & risk

Globant SA (GLOB)

We use a blend of 30x C25E P/E multiple and our DCF to calculate our 12-month price objective of $245. Our target multiple reflects a 40% premium to the comp group (vs. 5-yr historic premium of 33%), justified in our view by GLOB's strong revenue and margin profile. Our DCF uses a 13% weighted average cost of capital (WACC) and 3% terminal growth rate.

Upside risks to our price objective are: 1) acceleration in top-line growth, 2) sharp and sustained increase in bookings, 3) margin expansion, 4) increase in AI-related initiatives driving incremental revenue.

Downside risks to our price objective are: 1) ability to hire at scale to meet demand, 2) client concentration, 3) competition from multiple types of vendors, 4) cyclical nature of discretionary IT services spending among GLOB's clients.

FUNDAMENTAL EQUITY OPINION KEY: Opinions include a Volatility Risk Rating, an Investment Rating and an Income Rating. VOLATILITY RISK RATINGS, indicators of potential price fluctuation, are: A - Low, B - Medium and C - High. INVESTMENT RATINGS reflect the analyst's assessment of both a stock's absolute total return potential as well as its attractiveness for investment relative to other stocks within its Coverage Cluster (defined below). Our investment ratings are: 1 - Buy stocks are expected to have a total return of at least 10% and are the most attractive stocks in the coverage cluster; 2 - Neutral stocks are expected to remain flat or increase in value and are less attractive than Buy rated stocks and 3 - Underperform stocks are the least attractive stocks in a coverage cluster. An investment rating of 6 (No Rating) indicates that a stock is no longer trading on the basis of fundamentals. Analysts assign investment ratings considering, among other things, the 0-12 month total return expectation for a stock and the firm's guidelines for ratings dispersions (shown in the table below). The current price objective for a stock should be referenced to better understand the total return expectation at any given time. The price objective reflects the analyst's view of the potential price appreciation (depreciation).

Investment rating	Total return expectation (within 12-month period of date of initial rating)	Ratings dispersion guidelines for coverage cluster ^{R2}
Buy	≥ 10%	≤ 70%
Neutral	≥ 0%	≤ 30%
Underperform	N/A	≥ 20%

^{R2} Ratings dispersions may vary from time to time where BofA Global Research believes it better reflects the investment prospects of stocks in a Coverage Cluster.

INCOME RATINGS, indicators of potential cash dividends, are: 7 - same/higher (dividend considered to be secure), 8 - same/lower (dividend not considered to be secure) and 9 - pays no cash dividend. Coverage Cluster is comprised of stocks covered by a single analyst or two or more analysts sharing a common industry, sector, region or other classification(s). A stock's coverage cluster is included in the most recent BofA Global Research report referencing the stock.

BofA ESGMeter Methodology:

ESGMeter is a proprietary metric based on quantitative analysis and fundamental analyst inputs that reflects our assessment of a company's Environmental, Social and Governance-related attributes. The ESGMeter is intended to indicate a company's likelihood of experiencing stronger financial stability (higher return on equity and lower earnings and price volatility) over the next three years relative to peer group. There are three ESGMeter levels - Low, Medium, and High - which indicate whether a company has attributes most likely to translate into superior financial stability (in the case of a High level) or weaker financial stability (in the case of a Low level) over the next three years relative to its peer group. A Medium level suggests that a company exhibits ESG characteristics that are likely associated with financial stability results in line with its peer group over the next three years. Full details of our methodology, financial stability definition and disclaimers are available at BofA ESGMeter methodology. ESGMeter is not indicative of a company's future stock price performance and is not an investment recommendation or rating.

ESGMeter is independent of the BofA Global Research fundamental equity analyst's investment rating, volatility risk rating, income rating or price objective for that company.
