Slowdown in Enterprise drives weak 4Q23 growth trends

Maintain Rating: NO RATING | PO: NA | Price: 37.18 USD

Mixed 4Q23 results; disappointing Enterprise growth

4Q23 revenue growth of -5.8% was below Street's -2.9% expectations, which we attribute to the weak spending environment. The Cloud and Service Provider (SP) verticals remain challenged, and Enterprise growth has moderated to only +8% vs. +31.7% YoY a year ago, as backlog is now largely depleted to near-historical levels. Gross margin of 60.8% was ~90bps above Street expectations, yet higher headcount related costs and weaker revenue resulted in a 3c miss to Street's 64c EPS estimate. We maintain No Rating given Juniper's pending acquisition by HPE.

Enterprise slows on Mist moderation and depleted backlog

Enterprise revenue was up only 8% YoY, below the 30%-38% growth seen over the last four quarters. Backlog fulfillment likely explains a significant portion of the growth, as Juniper's backlog declined to $570mn in 4Q, lower than management's previous expectations for a $800mn year-end target. Growth of Juniper's Mist moderated, up 40% YoY to roughly $140mn, vs. the 100% growth recorded in 3Q23 and 2Q23. Overall, AI-Driven Enterprise revenue was up only 1% YoY vs. 30% growth recorded in 4Q22.

Cloud and Service Provider verticals remain challenged

Cloud and Service Provider demand remains pressured as both customer verticals are going through a period of lower spending and inventory digestion, coupled with the higher interest rate environment also putting a lid on investments. Cloud revenue was down -16.6% YoY in 4Q23 vs. +14.1% growth a year ago, while SP revenue was down -14.7% YoY vs. -8.2% in 4Q22. On a customer solutions basis, Cloud-Ready Data Center revenue declined 30% YoY, reflecting a weaker data center switching market and Automated WAN Solutions was down -5% YoY, driven by the weak service provider spending and a slowdown in 5G deployments. Similarly, Juniper's Security revenue declined 5% YoY, which we partially attribute to its narrow focus on SP customers (see link to our Juniper Security deep dive).

Sequential order growth trends improving

Order growth declines continue, yet at a moderating rate. Product orders grew double digits sequentially, suggesting a return to normal seasonal patterns, yet declined single digits YoY, an improvement from the 20%+ drop seen in 4Q22. Additionally, the Enterprise vertical saw mid-teens order growth YoY.

Operating margin offsetting gross margin improvement

Gross margin of 60.8% was above Street's 59.9%, supported by better-than-expected software revenue mix. However, operating margin of 18.3% was 30bps below Street expectations, driven by restructuring charges and higher costs related to additional hires in the company's services and go-to-market organizations. Weaker-than-expected revenue and operating margin drove EPS of 61c, 3c below Street's 64c estimate.

FUNDAMENTAL EQUITY OPINION KEY: Opinions include a Volatility Risk Rating, an Investment Rating and an Income Rating. VOLATILITY RISK RATINGS, indicators of potential price fluctuation, are: A - Low, B - Medium and C - High. INVESTMENT RATINGS reflect the analyst's assessment of both a stock's absolute total return potential as well as its attractiveness for investment relative to other stocks within its Coverage Cluster (defined below). Our investment ratings are: 1 - Buy stocks are expected to have a total return of at least 10% and are the most attractive stocks in the coverage cluster; 2 - Neutral stocks are expected to remain flat or increase in value and are less attractive than Buy rated stocks and 3 - Underperform stocks are the least attractive stocks in a coverage cluster. An investment rating of 6 (No Rating) indicates that a stock is no longer trading on the basis of fundamentals. Analysts assign investment ratings considering, among other things, the 0-12 month total return expectation for a stock and the firm's guidelines for ratings dispersions (shown in the table below). The current price objective for a stock should be referenced to better understand the total return expectation at any given time. The price objective reflects the analyst's view of the potential price appreciation (depreciation).

Investment rating	Total return expectation (within 12-month period of date of initial rating)	Ratings dispersion guidelines for coverage cluster ^{R2}
Buy	≥ 10%	≤ 70%
Neutral	≥ 0%	≤ 30%
Underperform	N/A	≥ 20%

^{R2} Ratings dispersions may vary from time to time where BofA Global Research believes it better reflects the investment prospects of stocks in a Coverage Cluster.

INCOME RATINGS, indicators of potential cash dividends, are: 7 - same/higher (dividend considered to be secure), 8 - same/lower (dividend not considered to be secure) and 9 - pays no cash dividend. Coverage Cluster is comprised of stocks covered by a single analyst or two or more analysts sharing a common industry, sector, region or other classification(s). A stock's coverage cluster is included in the most recent BofA Global Research report referencing the stock.

BofA ESGMeter Methodology:

ESGMeter is a proprietary metric based on quantitative analysis and fundamental analyst inputs that reflects our assessment of a company's Environmental, Social and Governance-related attributes. The ESGMeter is intended to indicate a company's likelihood of experiencing stronger financial stability (higher return on equity and lower earnings and price volatility) over the next three years relative to peer group. There are three ESGMeter levels - Low, Medium, and High - which indicate whether a company has attributes most likely to translate into superior financial stability (in the case of a High level) or weaker financial stability (in the case of a Low level) over the next three years relative to its peer group. A Medium level suggests that a company exhibits ESG characteristics that are likely associated with financial stability results in line with its peer group over the next three years. Full details of our methodology, financial stability definition and disclaimers are available at BofA ESGMeter methodology. ESGMeter is not indicative of a company's future stock price performance and is not an investment recommendation or rating. ESGMeter is independent of the BofA Global Research fundamental equity analyst's investment rating, volatility risk rating, income rating or price objective for that company.
