Rates & industry promos weigh on 2H, but growth story intact for 2024; Buy

Reiterate Rating: BUY | PO: 309.00 USD | Price: 281.40 USD

Rev/EBIT miss driven by housing weakness, int'l costs

Reported 3Q rev of $751mn ($10mn & $5mn below our est. & Street, respectively), declined 14% y/y, a 5pt acceleration vs. 2Q but still pressured by elevated mortgage rates, which peaked above 8% in early-Oct. Total store count reached 125 and, in November, RH opened stores in Munich and Düsseldorf, the company's first expansion into continental Europe. Adj. EBIT of $55.2mn (7.3% margin) was well below Street's $74mn due to lower volume leverage and higher than anticipated expenses, including int'l openings and costs related to the 4Q acquisition of the NY Guesthouse for $58mn.

FY23 rev guide narrowed with EBIT range lowered

Guided FY23 rev to $3.06-3.08bn, narrowed from $3.04-3.10bn, with mdpt maintained at $3.07bn suggesting a 14% y/y contraction for the year. Implied 4Q revenue guide suggests 1% y/y growth, a strong 15pt accel on a relatively stable comp driven by incremental demand from the Interior and Contemporary Sourcebooks despite Modern Sourcebook now delayed until 1Q'24. Adj operating margin guide was lowered to 13.6-14.0% from 14.5-15.5%, likely from industry promotions shifting consumers to clearance pricing, and suggests 11.6-13.2% margin for the quarter, or $91-103mn.

Lowering 2023 revenue/adj. EBIT projections by 2/11%

We lower FY23E revenue by 1% to $3.08bn, adj. EBIT by 11% to $428mn, and adj. EPS by 20% to $8.27 (vs. prior $10.40). For 2024E, we lower revenue slightly to $3.38bn, adj. EBIT by 8% to $566mn (primarily on 1H'24 GM), and adj. EPS by 12% to $14.91.

2024 growth story still intact despite muddy print; Buy

We see the print as disappointing; a tougher operating environment (Oct. mortgage spike and increased industry promos) is driving a narrowing of sales guidance (though the FY23 mdpt was maintained at $3.07bn), a delay of Sourcebook mailings until 1Q'24, and lower margin guidance. In our view, shares may be range bound in the near-term (shares down 9% AMC), and we would look for RH to show sustained evidence of improvement and more clarity on the impact to '24 margins on product/gallery ramp. We remain positive on outlook for 2024 on a possible housing trough and new gallery conversions, compounded by mgmt. expecting an acceleration in demand trends in 1H'24 on the largest product launch in RH's history. We lower our PO to $309 (from $345) based on lower operating income outlook but higher 21x 2024E EPS multiple (from 20x) on cont. confidence in earnings accelerating next year. Reiterate our Buy rating on RH.

Company Sector

Retailing-Hardlines

Company Description

RH is a retailer of high-end home furnishings including furniture, lighting, textiles, bathware, décor and outdoor with locations across the US and Canada. The company targets wealthy consumers with incomes of $250k or greater. Over the last decade, the company has transformed itself from a retailer of eclectic collectibles and decorative items to luxury furniture and home goods. It generates sales through stores and a direct channel.

Investment Rationale

RH has built a differentiated retail experience and brand name that we believe protects it from intensifying online competition that is pressuring the rest of the home furnishings market. While the company has a history of execution missteps and highly volatile earnings, we believe RH has hit an inflection for steadier growth and margins in its core business which should support higher earnings and multiple expansion.

Price objective basis & risk

RH (RH)

Our price objective on RH is $309, which is based on $21x\ 2024E\ P/E$. Our valuation is above the average multiple of 17x on a proven track record of consistently growing margins as well as several large and long-term revenue opportunities that could deliver upside.

The upside risks to our price objective are continued upside potential from RH's gallery conversion strategy, international growth, operating leverage on sales growth, and supply-chain cost reductions and greater-than-expected share repurchases.

Downside risks to our price objective are weakness in discretionary spending or a recession, which would likely have an outsized impact on RH's luxury brand.

It issuers that were investment banking dients of BofA Securities or one of its affiliates within the past 12 months. For purposes of this Investment Rating Distribution, the coverage universe includes only stocks. A stock rated Neutral is included as a Hold, and a stock rated Underperform is included as a Sell.

FUNDAMENTAL EQUITY OPINION KEY: Opinions include a Volatility Risk Rating, an Investment Rating and an Income Rating. VOLATILITY RISK RATINGS, indicators of potential price fluctuation, are: A - Low, B - Medium and C - High. INVESTMENT RATINGS reflect the analyst's assessment of both a stock's absolute total return potential as well as its attractiveness for investment relative to other stocks within its Coverage Cluster (defined below). Our investment ratings are: 1 - Buy stocks are expected to have a total return of at least 10% and are the most attractive stocks in the coverage cluster, 2 - Neutral stocks are expected to remain flat or increase in value and are less attractive than Buy rated stocks and 3 - Underperform stocks are the least attractive stocks in a coverage cluster. An investment rating of 6 (No Rating) indicates that a stock is no longer trading on the basis of fundamentals. Analysts assign investment ratings considering, among other things, the 0-12 month total return expectation for a stock and the firm's guidelines for ratings dispersions (shown in the table below). The current price objective for a stock should be referenced to better understand the total return expectation at any given time. The price objective reflects the analyst's view of the potential price appreciation (depreciation).

BofA ESGMeter Methodology:

ESGMeter is a proprietary metric based on quantitative analysis and fundamental analyst inputs that reflects our assessment of a company's Environmental, Social and Governance-related attributes. The ESGMeter is intended to indicate a company's likelihood of experiencing stronger financial stability (higher return on equity and lower earnings and price volatility) over the next three years relative to peer group. There are three ESGMeter levels - Low, Medium, and High - which indicate whether a company has attributes most likely to translate into superior financial stability (in the case of a High level) or weaker financial stability (in the case of a Low level) over the next three years relative to its peer group. A Medium level suggests that a company exhibits ESG characteristics that are likely associated with financial stability results in line with its peer group over the next three years. Full details of our methodology, financial stability definition and disclaimers are available at BofA ESGMeter methodology. ESGMeter is not indicative of a company's future stock price performance and is not an investment recommendation or rating. ESGMeter is independent of the BofA Global Research fundamental equity analyst's investment rating, volatility risk rating, income rating or price objective for that company.
