Global Asset Manager BULL: Bond flows heating up... heat wave coming in '24

Industry Overview

Forecast sizable reallocations into bonds in 2024-25

In this monthly series, we gather and analyze data from multiple market data sources (Simfund, Morningstar, Lipper, and ICI) to monitor intra-quarter trends across the asset management industry. Last month, we saw net redemptions in active equities continue versus a positive inflection in active bond flows and continued positive inflows into both passive equities and bonds. Money market inflows continued and accelerated slightly while net inflows into ETFs decelerated with typical seasonality. Money market, private credit and ETFs generated strong flows in 2023 and we expect to see an acceleration into traditional fixed income (including active, from money market) by 2H24 following the first Fed rate cut and steepening yield curve. In Europe, net inflows continued driven by inflows into bonds versus outflows in equities.

On a manager basis, we monitored positive/improving net flow results at AB, BLK, IVZ, CNS, FHI, JPM, MS, PIMCO, PRU, SCHW, Vanguard and WETF due to their bond, ETF, and money market fund businesses (most other names had negative / weak flows). Given our view that both fixed income and ETF flows will be strong in 2024, we continue to recommend AB and BLK as we believe they are best-positioned for the expected reallocations into fixed income.

Update on key secular / cyclical themes:

Active to Passive (secular) - mixed: This trend continued in equities last month with outflows in active compared to continued inflows into passive. Within bonds, however, active flows inflected positive and passive bond inflows accelerated. We also note that the inflow level into passive bonds exceeded passive equity last month.

Domestic to Global/International (secular) - mixed: Within equities, this trend was mixed last month as outflows in US, global, and European equities continued while Japan equities experienced accelerated inflows. Fixed income was also mixed as US corporates and global bond both inflowed although outflows from US treasuries continued.

Equities to Fixed Income (secular) - continued: This trend resumed last month as bond flows remained positive and accelerated significantly while redemptions in equities continued. Within fixed income, core, global, US corporates, mortgage, and high yield all inflowed. We look for retirees, pension plans and higher interest rates to support this theme in 2024.

Money market funds – positive: Net inflows continued last month and accelerated slightly m/m but remain much more muted compared to robust levels in November. We expect retail MMF flows to continue decelerating and potentially inflect negative in 2024 (tax season in March/April) and for client cash sorting at brokerage firms to continue decelerating as well.

Company detail

BlackRock (BLK, Buy): Fixed income flows re-accelerated in Jan; Best-positioned for 2024 fixed income rebalancings

- Flows: BLK's US MF & retail business experienced LT net inflows last month although decelerated (+$9.9B vs. +$23.4B m/m) primarily driven by inflows into fixed income (+$9.5B) and equities (+$0.5B) partially offset by slight outflows in hybrid (-$0.1B). Total net flows of +$3.1B were lower due to money market outflows ($6.8B). While total LT net flows decelerated slightly (typical reversal of positive seasonality for ETFs in Dec.), we note that fixed income inflows reaccelerated m/m (+$9.5B vs. +$1.5B in Dec.). We continue to view BLK as best-positioned to win the largest share of fixed income flows in 2024 given its position as the #1 fixed income and ETF manager globally (Vanguard #2) and our forecast for significant rebalancings into fixed income after the Fed's first cut. This view is supported by BLK's industry leading bond ETF business (expect passive to win 60-70% of flows) in addition to investment performance issues at its largest competitors. Accordingly, we expect BLK's organic growth rate to accelerate to +5% in 2024 from +2% y/y driven mostly by fixed income inflows (offset by money market fund outflows).
- Performance: We note that investment performance in BLK's active business is not as critical for its organic growth as its peers due to BLK's large non-active/traditional business (iShares = ETFs, Aladdin = technology solutions, Alts). As of November, we estimate that BLK's overall investment performance is below the peer average (29% of AuM rated 5/4 stars by Morningstar over 3Y vs. 39% for the peer group avg.). However, LT investment performance looks better among BLK's largest flagship strategies. Specifically, only 2/6 of BLK's larger flagship strategies are underperforming relative to the Morningstar Category over 5Y (Multi-Asset, Total Return). We view Total Return as a good proxy for BLK's active bond business. Note: BLK's global mutual fund and ETF businesses, which we could track via our 3rd party data providers intra-quarter, account for 50% of its total AuM.

T. Rowe Price (TROW, UP): Net outflows improved in January supported by positive seasonality

• Earlier this week, TROW reported preliminary net outflows of $4.8B in January which was a significant improvement from December ($9.4B). However, we note that January has positive seasonality with annual 401k inflows which we estimate drove most of the m/m improvement. Last month, TROW's total US mutual fund & ETF business net flows were -$4.3B and international flows were flat. LT net outflows of $3.8B in US funds were driven primarily by redemptions in equities (-$4.3B) slightly offset by inflows into fixed income (+$0.3B) and hybrid (+$0.3B) while total net outflows of $4.3B were due to negative money market flows (-$0.6B). Outflows were driven by a broad set of active equity funds but more concentrated in Blue Chip, and Price Growth. Both Blue Chip and Price Growth have weaker LT investment performance (-1/-3% over 3Y and -1/-2% over 5Y ann.). We note, however, that Blue Chip and Price Growth have outperformed NT (+14/+9% over 1Y) which should support an improved flow trajectory in 2024.

Europe (Hubert Lam): LT net flows positive led by bonds

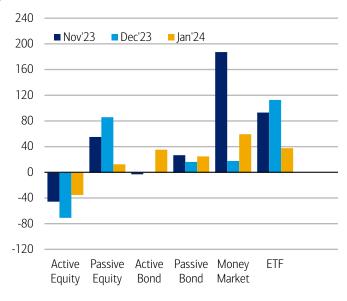

Long-term net flows were positive in Europe in Dec at EUR 1.9bn which is lower than in Nov where they amounted to EUR12.9bn. Inflows were led by fixed income at EUR14.9bn compared to EUR19.9bn in Nov. Mutual funds made up the majority of the inflows at EUR11.9bn vs. ETF at EUR3.0bn. Flows in equities turned negative again at EUR (1bn) after being positive in Nov. Dec had EUR(15.4)bn of outflows in equity mutual funds partly offset by EUR14.3bn of ETF inflows. The biggest drivers of outflows in Dec were hybrid, commodities and alternatives. According to the data, Amundi saw inflows of EUR1.2bn in Jan, driven by EUR1.2bn of money market funds while long-term flows were flat as hybrid saw outflows while fixed income and equity saw inflows.

Australia: Starting the year with further net outflows

Australian Asset Manager's MFG and PTM have continued to see net outflows, with both stocks reporting net outflows of 1.1% of opening FUM at Jan-24. MFG outflows were reported across both Retail and Institutional investors, with Retail outflows remaining a key risk given higher margin FUM. Net outflows remain consistent with industry outflows within International equities during 3QCY23, vs industry net inflows into Australian equities. Net flows were positive across Australian and International FI. Shift from active to passive continues with Australian ETF FUM +22.7% Y/Y at Sep-23.

Price objective basis & risk

AllianceBernstein (AB)

Our price objective (PO) is derived from a price to earnings method. We apply a 12.5x multiple on our 2026E EPS to obtain our $50 PO. 12.5x is in line with the company's five-year average but represents a premium to its traditional/active peer group excluding BlackRock. We think that AB's improving business mix/organic growth trajectory could support a higher valuation in the future if AB's total net flows rebound in 2024.

Downside risks to AB: (1) active to passive rotation + industry fee pressure, (2) AB's business model is procyclical and is impacted from market prices, (3) Bernstein's research business faces secular pressures relating to industry consolidation, (4) AB has soft investment performance in its active equity business, (5) its large APAC franchise faces risks related to a potential US-China decoupling and a China-Taiwan conflict.

Upside risks: (1) improving net flows, (2) investment performance (improving since June 16), and (3) favorable markets.

BlackRock, Inc. (BLK)

Our PO of $1025 is based on a 20x 2026E EPS multiple. This is slightly lower than the mid-point of where the stock has traded over the last 12-18 months (17 to 24x range on next 12 month EPS). The asset manager stocks are currently trading at a wide range (5-42x) with an average of 15x EPS and our PO assumes BLK maintains its historical premium (especially relative to the traditional asset managers given BLK's higher growth prospects).

Risks to our PO are (1) capacity and regulatory issues created by size, (2) negative markets or market-driven mix shift (divergent beta), (3) fee pressure (pricing cuts).

T. Rowe Price (TROW)

Our price objective (PO) for TROW is $101 and is derived from a price to earnings method. We apply a 10.0x multiple on our 2026 EPS estimate plus $11 for TROW's excess capital (and zero debt) to obtain our PO. 10.0x is lower than TROW's 5Y average multiple of 15.0x, which is due to our reduced forward growth estimate for EPS/AuM.

Upside risks to our PO are (1) strong fundraising activity at Oak Hill which would improve TROW's future organic growth, (2) acceleration in international expansion which would help net flows, (3) improving margins following the new partnership with FIS, (4) reversal in the negative net flow trend following the formation of TRPIM.

Downside risks to our PO are (1) pricing pressure, (2) elevated net redemptions in its 401k business, (3) deterioration in investment performance, or (4) disruption to the company's investment culture.

FUNDAMENTAL EQUITY OPINION KEY: Opinions include a Volatility Risk Rating, an Investment Rating and an Income Rating. VOLATILITY RISK RATINGS, indicators of potential price fluctuation, are: A - Low, B - Medium and C - High. INVESTMENT RATINGS reflect the analyst's assessment of both a stock's absolute total return potential as well as its attractiveness for investment relative to other stocks within its Coverage Cluster (defined below). Our investment ratings are: 1 - Buy stocks are expected to have a total return of at least 10% and are the most attractive stocks in the coverage cluster; 2 - Neutral stocks are expected to remain flat or increase in value and are less attractive than Buy rated stocks and 3 - Underperform stocks are the least attractive stocks in a coverage cluster. An investment rating of 6 (No Rating) indicates that a stock is no longer trading on the basis of fundamentals. Analysts assign investment ratings considering, among other things, the 0-12 month total return expectation for a stock and the firm's guidelines for ratings dispersions (shown in the table below). The current price objective for a stock should be referenced to better understand the total return expectation at any given time. The price objective reflects the analyst's view of the potential price appreciation (depreciation).

BofA ESGMeter Methodology:

ESGMeter is a proprietary metric based on quantitative analysis and fundamental analyst inputs that reflects our assessment of a company's Environmental, Social and Governance-related attributes. The ESGMeter is intended to indicate a company's likelihood of experiencing stronger financial stability (higher return on equity and lower earnings and price volatility) over the next three years relative to peer group. There are three ESGMeter levels - Low, Medium, and High - which indicate whether a company has attributes most likely to translate into superior financial stability (in the case of a High level) or weaker financial stability (in the case of a Low level) over the next three years relative to its peer group. A Medium level suggests that a company exhibits ESG characteristics that are likely associated with financial stability results in line with its peer group over the next three years. Full details of our methodology, financial stability definition and disclaimers are available at BofA ESGMeter methodology. ESGMeter is not indicative of a company's future stock price performance and is not an investment recommendation or rating. ESGMeter is independent of the BofA Global Research fundamental equity analyst's investment rating, volatility risk rating, income rating or price objective for that company.
