Soft 4Q results and '24 guidance, but it looks conservative; Reiterate Buy

Reiterate Rating: BUY | PO: 14.00 USD | Price: 9.79 USD

Guidance is soft, but looks achievable

Reiterate Buy, and $14 PO. 4Q23 results were soft as elevated churn and optimizations continue to weigh on leading growth indicators resulting in a conservative 2024 revenue growth outlook. However, customer additions were strong, giving us confidence in the traction of its newer Plus plan and PLG motion, suggesting there is revenue upside potential to guidance. While 2024 PF operating income guidance of $500k at the midpoint represents less margin expansion (i.e., +140bps y/y versus +975bps in 2023), suggesting that the margin structure may be close to optimal to achieve near-term growth targets, we see margin upside potential driven by revenue outperformance. We revise our forecast for 4Q23 results and guidance. We lower our EV/C24E revenue multiple to 5.1x from 6x to reflect soft guidance and lower share count.

Green shoots appear, but 1H24 renewals may weigh

Commentary that early optimizers are beginning to spend again, and the risks for another optimization in the future to occur is low, suggests there is improving visibility into the pipeline, and NRR stabilizing and expanding. On balance, churn remains elevated, and 1H24 will see many two and three-year contracts coming up for renewal, which are likely be optimized at that time. This dynamic is baked into the guidance, but also implies that 2Q24 subscription could grow negative sequentially, which is a bad optic for software companies and could offset underlying good potential new business trends.

Positives: new business accelerating

1) Added 9 net-new $1mn+ customers, bringing the total to 39 (\pm 30% y/y), 2) landed a company record number of new enterprise logos in 4Q23, 3) 4Q23 PF op margin of 3.2% was higher than our 2.3% forecast, and represented margin expansion of 10.4pts, 4) net-new ARR of $8mn was the highest quarterly net-add in 2023, and 5) record total net-new customers of 252 (\pm 211% y/y), suggesting the refreshed GTM is working.

Negatives: find 5 negatives

1) NRR declined 4pts q/q to 101%, and is the sixth straight quarter of contracting NRR, and NRR could continue to compress in upcoming quarters, 2) cRPO grew (1%) y/y to $188.5mn, and is the first time growing negative since its IPO, 3) billings growth decelerated to 8.6% y/y, from 12.7% last quarter, 4) $100k+ ARR customers grew 6% y/y to 511, down from the 25% growth displayed for 2022, suggesting the mid-market digital native tech customer base is still under pressure.

Company Sector

Server & Enterprise Software

Company Description

Amplitude is a software vendor that is disrupting the Digital Optimization opportunity, which we estimate to reach $44bn by 2025. The ability to understand digital product customer journeys is complex and involves different engagement points, across different devices/time/location, which is balanced against S&M, R&D and customer service strategies. The Amplitude platform is able to ingest and analyze the data fast and efficiently, which ultimately drives better customer outcomes.

Investment Rationale

We rate AMPL Buy. We believe AMPL is an underappreciated software business that is well positioned to take share of Digital Optimization category, where it is perceived to be a leader. The volume of digital products introduced will likely increase as firms digitally transform, and AMPL helps organizations of all sizes understand end-consumer behavior and drive good user outcomes. We believe healthy demand for Amplitude should drive a growth profile higher than its infrastructure software peers.

Price objective basis & risk

Amplitude, Inc. (AMPL)

Our $14 PO is based on 5.1x EV/C24E revenue, representing a growth adjusted multiple of 0.9x our 6% growth rate. The multiple is slightly lower than the previous multiple to account for a higher cash balance. The multiple we use is a premium to infrastructure software peers on a growth adjusted basis at 0.9x (8.2x EV/C24E revenues), warranted, in our view, due to their position as a category leader and long-term growth profile balanced against execution risks.

Risk to our PO are1) competition, 2) premium valuation is a top risk for Amplitude's stock, 3) execution in go to market (G2M) and R&D, 4) not profitable in the near term, and 5) enterprise software spend can be highly cyclical.

FUNDAMENTAL EQUITY OPINION KEY: Opinions include a Volatility Risk Rating, an Investment Rating and an Income Rating. VOLATILITY RISK RATINGS, indicators of potential price fluctuation, are: A - Low, B - Medium and C - High. INVESTMENT RATINGS reflect the analyst's assessment of both a stock's absolute total return potential as well as its attractiveness for investment relative to other stocks within its Coverage Cluster (defined below). Our investment ratings are: 1 - Buy stocks are expected to have a total return of at least 10% and are the most attractive stocks in the coverage cluster; 2 - Neutral stocks are expected to remain flat or increase in value and are less attractive than Buy rated stocks and 3 - Underperform stocks are the least attractive stocks in a coverage cluster. An investment rating of 6 (No Rating) indicates that a stock is no longer trading on the basis of fundamentals. Analysts assign investment ratings considering, among other things, the 0-12 month total return expectation for a stock and the firm's guidelines for ratings dispersions (shown in the table below). The current price objective for a stock should be referenced to better understand the total return expectation at any given time. The price objective reflects the analyst's view of the potential price appreciation (depreciation).

Buy	≥ 10%	≤ 70%
Neutral	≥ 0%	≤ 30%
Inderperform	N/A	≥ 20%

R2Ratings dispersions may vary from time to time where BofA Global Research believes it better reflects the investment prospects of stocks in a Coverage Cluster.

INCOME RATINGS, indicators of potential cash dividends, are: 7 - same/higher (dividend considered to be secure), 8 - same/lower (dividend not considered to be secure) and 9 - pays no cash dividend. Coverage Cluster is comprised of stocks covered by a single analyst or two or more analysts sharing a common industry, sector, region or other classification(s). BofA ESGMeter Methodology:

ESGMeter is a proprietary metric based on quantitative analysis and fundamental analyst inputs that reflects our assessment of a company's Environmental, Social and Governance-related attributes. The ESGMeter is intended to indicate a company's likelihood of experiencing stronger financial stability (higher return on equity and lower earnings and price volatility) over the next three years relative to peer group. There are three ESGMeter levels - Low, Medium, and High - which indicate whether a company has attributes most likely to translate into superior financial stability (in the case of a High level) or weaker financial stability (in the case of a Low level) over the next three years relative to its peer group. A Medium level suggests that a company exhibits ESG characteristics that are likely associated with financial stability results in line with its peer group over the next three years. Full details of our methodology, financial stability definition and disclaimers are available at BofA ESGMeter methodology. ESGMeter is not indicative of a company's future stock price performance and is not an investment recommendation or rating. ESGMeter is independent of the BofA Global Research fundamental equity analyst's investment rating, volatility risk rating, income rating or price objective for that company.
