Guide raised, above average growth through 2023

SGRY raised the Adjusted EBITDA guidance by 1% despite the headwind from the cyber event, calling for at least 14% growth in 2023. Expects volume and rev/case to be above the LT outlook (2-3% vol, 2-3% pricing) due to physician recruiting and targeting higher acuity. Expects Q3 to be 24% of adjusted EBITDA and 24.5% of revenue. This implies that Q3 EBITDA is 1% below consensus and the implied Q4 is 2% above consensus. Finally, management was confident in its ability to grow adjusted EBITDA by mid-teens next year. Overall, the quarter was in-line with expectations with strong EBITDA growth and a modest beat/raise signaling that numbers continue to move up. We are raising our adjusted EBITDA ests. Our $50 PO represents 18.7x our 2024E EBITDA less NCI vs 18.8x prior. We reaffirm our Buy rating.

Volume growth broad based

Reported same store case growth of 2.3% would be closer to 3% excluding the cyber event. Specialty case mix is where it was expected as all specialties have recovered since 2022. In particular, Mgmt continues to be bullish on the growth outlook for Ortho over the next few years, noting that total joints were up 73%. The company highlighted continued progress on physician recruiting. Finally, the company was bullish on its de novo pipeline within both consolidated and unconsolidated facilities.

Portfolio repositioning continues, growing unconsolidated

SGRY spent $119m on M&A at multiples under 8x. Recent deals have skewed towards unconsolidated assets, which will accelerate over the next 12-18 months as de novos and deals with JV partners ramp. SGRY noted that when it buys a Minority interest in a facility it tends to be a lower multiple than avg but then sees two advantages, 1) SGRY gets a mgmt fee and benefits from the synergies it brings through its equity in earnings of affiliates, and 2) these deals add scale which it can leverage across the portfolio through things like better procurement. On the other end, SGRY continues to sell assets with less opportunity to grow - sold 5 facilities with another 2-4 sales over the next 6 months with proceeds redeployed accretively. So far, divestitures are over a $100m rev headwind, but will replace that revenue through redeploying proceeds over time.

Company Description

SGRY operates one of the largest networks of outpatient surgery facilities in the US, consisting of 113 ambulatory surgery centers and 15 surgical hospitals in 31 states. SGRY also has ancillary services comprised of a diagnostic lab, multi-specialty physician practices, urgent care facilities, anesthesia services, and optical services.

Investment Rationale

We like the long-term fundamentals of the business, given ambulatory surgery centers' (ASCs) positioning as the low cost setting for care, which should drive organic growth.

Also, ASCs are less exposed to labor than inpatient settings. Finally, we expect the company to supplement growth with acquisitions.

Surgery Partners, Inc (SGRY)

Our $50 PO is based on a multiple of 18.7x our 2024E EBITDA-NCI estimate, a premium to the company's historical avg multiple of 13.1x since 2015 and above the 3-year average of 17x. We think the premium to the historical average is justified by the acceleration in the shift to the outpatient settings driving above-average long-term organic growth. In addition to the strong organic growth, we expect a robust M&A. The multiple is adjusted for the dilution of convertible preferred equity shares.

Downside risks are 1) worse-than-expected organic growth, 2) failure of physician recruitment investments to come online on time, 3) potential rate pressure from Medicare or commercial payors, and 4) deal integration risks. SGRY also has above-average leverage, although improving.

BofA ESGMeter Methodology:

ESGMeter is a proprietary metric based on quantitative analysis and fundamental analyst inputs that reflects our assessment of a company's Environmental, Social and Governance-related attributes. The ESGMeter is intended to indicate a company's likelihood of experiencing stronger financial stability (higher return on equity and lower earnings and price volatility) over the next three years relative to peer group. There are three ESGMeter levels - Low, Medium, and High - which indicate whether a company has attributes most likely to translate into superior financial stability (in the case of a High level) or weaker financial stability (in the case of a Low level) over the next three years relative to its peer group. A Medium level suggests that a company exhibits ESG characteristics that are likely associated with financial stability results in line with its peer group over the next three years. Full details of our methodology, financial stability definition and disclaimers are available at BofA ESGMeter methodology. ESGMeter is not indicative of a company's future stock price performance and is not an investment recommendation or rating. ESGMeter is independent of the BofA Global Research fundamental equity analyst's investment rating, volatility risk rating, income rating or price objective for that company.
