Watching the American Savings Bank given challenging macro conditions

Reiterate Rating: UNDERPERFORM | PO: 37.00 USD | Price: 37.33 USD

HE has outperformed local banking peers recently

Reiterate Underperform on shares of Hawaiian Electric (HE) which is expensive relative to our view of the fundamentals and deserves to trade at a discount to utility peers due to its banking exposure. HE owns American Savings Bank (ASB), one of the larger banks in Hawaii. ASB represented ~33% of earnings in 2022, down from 41% in 2021 and we expect this to be 35%+ in future years. Hawaii banking peers Bank of Hawaii (BOH) and First Hawaiian Inc (FHB) have both been under pressure in recent days after the events surrounding Silicon Valley Bank (SIVB – not covered) and other lenders. BOH is -17% the past month and -6% on Friday. FHB was similarly -15% the past month and -3% on Friday. Peers BOH (39%) and FHB (52%) had a higher percentage of deposits below $250,000 than SVB Financial Group (3%) and Signature Bank (SBNY 6%) per S&P Global Market Intelligence. Sunday evenings joint statement by the Department of the US Treasury, Federal Reserve, and FDIC should help ease concerns but the event highlights the risks of higher interest rates for banks equity. Historically ASB has been a funding source for the regulated utility with $42Mn in 2022 and $59Mn in 2023. In 2023 management guides to no external equity and $50Mn dividends from the bank.

Examining the bank balance sheet: less equity than before

As of YE22 tangible common equity to assets was 4%, unchanged QoQ but down from 7%. The disclosed Tier 1 leverage was 7.8%, above the 5% "well capitalized" and 4% minimum requirements. ASB had $8,170MMn deposit liabilities as of 12/31/22 (92% of funding sources) versus $153Mn cash, $1,633Mn unused borrowing capacity from FHLB, and $1,640Mn unencumbered securities. The net unrealized losses on securities increased to $329Mn at YE22 up from $32Mn at YE21. This lowered shareholder equity to $469Mn from $728Mn and management described itself as having $194Mn+ of excess equity above the "well capitalized" levels. In October 2022, ASB transferred 66 AFS investments with a $755Mn fair value to HTM with a $206Mn unrealized loss at the time of transfer. The rationale for the change was "to mitigate the potential future impact to capital through accumulated other comprehensive loss and the impact of rising rates on the market value of the investment securities."

The majority of the company is comprised of utilities, about 57% of its earnings at its utility subsidiaries Hawaiian Electric Company (HECO), Hawaii Electric Light (HELCO) and Maui Electric (ME).

Investment Rationale

We rate Hawaiian Electric Industries as Underperform with an increasingly cautious setup at the utility outweighing bank tailwinds. Decelerating capex and elevated O&M are likely to limit EPS upside while performance incentive mechanisms are proving punitive thus far. Overall, we see a discount as merited given below average growth, historical execution challenges, and near term risks to the plan.

Banking valuation discount not priced-in

HE currently trades at 14.7x 2025E, a -4% discount versus the electric utility sector at 15.3x. We believe a larger discounted is warranted for (1) the below-average utility EPS growth ~5% with performance incentive mechanisms; and (2) having 30-40% of EPS from the banking subsidiary. Our banking colleague rates both Bank of Hawaii and First Hawaiian Inc. as underperform. The two companies trade at ~13x and ~10x Consensus 2024E; respectively, both steeply discounted versus US utilities at ~16x.

Unrealized losses the investor focus on banks currently

Of the gross unrealized losses, $248.5Mn related to available-for-sale securities and $103Mn for held-to-maturity securities. Within these categories 90%+ were for mortgage-backed securities "issued or guaranteed by U.S. Government agencies or sponsored agencies."

HE describes limitations on its banking activities if the tangible equity capital ratio declines below 2% with further borrowing limitations if tangible equity becomes negative.

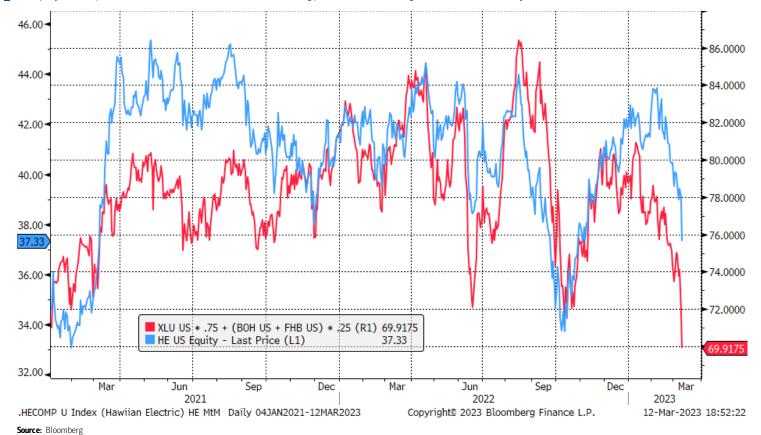

The 30Yr US Treasury was 1.9% on 12/31/21 versus 3.9% on 12/31/22 and is slightly lower at 3.7% currently. The fact that long-term interest rates have declined since 12/31/22 should help to keep the investment portfolio's valuation intact. ASB's disclosed weighted average investment yield was 1.74%.

RofA GLOBAL RESEARCH

Below we highlight sections from HE's 10K

Risk section

Because the earnings of ASB depend primarily on net interest income, interest rate risk is a significant risk of ASB's operations. HEI and the Utilities are also exposed to interest rate risk primarily due to their periodic borrowing requirements, the discount rate used to determine pension funding requirements and the possible effect of interest rates on the electric utilities' rates of return. Interest rates are sensitive to many factors, including general economic conditions and the policies of government and regulatory authorities. HEI cannot predict future changes in interest rates, nor be certain that interest rate risk management strategies it or its subsidiaries have implemented will be successful in managing interest rate risk.

Interest rate risk also represents a market risk factor affecting the fair value of ASB's investment securities. Increases and decreases in prevailing interest rates generally translate into decreases and increases in the fair values of those instruments, respectively. Disruptions in the credit markets, a liquidity crisis in the banking industry or increased levels of residential mortgage delinquencies and defaults may result in decreases in the fair value of ASB's investment securities and an impairment, requiring ASB to write down its investment securities. As of December 31, 2022, ASB's investment in U.S. Treasury and federal agency obligations, and mortgage-backed securities have an implicit guarantee from the U.S. government. Decreases in the fair value of ASB's investment securities may also result in lower equity capital balances as unrealized losses in the available-for-sale investment securities portfolio are recorded as a decrease in equity capital through accumulated other comprehensive losses. The lower equity capital balance could result in a lower tangible equity capital ratio and restrict ASB's permissible activities if the tangible equity capital ratio falls below 2%. A negative tangible equity capital ratio would impact ASB's availability to borrow funds from the FHLB of Des Moines.

Accounting

Investment securities. Investments in debt securities are classified as held-to-maturity (HTM), trading or available-for-sale (AFS). ASB determines the appropriate classification at the time of purchase. Debt securities that ASB intends to and has the ability to hold to maturity are classified as HTM securities and reported at amortized cost. Marketable debt securities that are bought and held principally for the purpose of selling them in the near term are classified as trading securities and reported at fair value, with unrealized gains and losses included in earnings. Marketable debt securities not classified as either HTM or trading securities are classified as AFS and reported at fair value. Unrealized gains and losses for AFS securities are excluded from earnings and reported on a net basis in accumulated other comprehensive income (AOCI) until realized.

Transfers of debt securities from the available-for-sale classification to the held-to-maturity classification are made at fair value at the date of transfer. The unrealized holding gain or loss at the date of transfer remains in AOCI and in the carrying value of the held-to-maturity investment security. [emphasis added]

Unrealized holding gains or losses that remain in AOCI are amortized or accreted over the expected life of the security as an adjustment of yield, offsetting the related amortization of the premium or accretion of the discount.

Price objective basis & risk

For purposes of this Investment Rating Distribution, the coverage universe includes only stocks. A stock rated Neutral is included as a Hold, and a stock rated Underperform is included as a Sell.

FUNDAMENTAL EQUITY OPINION KEY: Opinions include a Volatility Risk Rating, an Investment Rating and an Income Rating. VOLATILITY RISK RATINGS, indicators of potential price fluctuation, are: A - Low, B - Medium and C - High. INVESTMENT RATINGS reflect the analyst's assessment of both a stock's: absolute total return potential as well as its attractiveness for investment relative to other stocks within its Coverage Cluster (defined below). There are three investment ratings: 1 - Buy stocks are expected to have a total return of at least 10% and are the most attractive stocks in the coverage cluster; 2 - Neutral stocks are expected to remain flat or increase in value and are less attractive than Buy rated stocks and 3 - Underperform stocks are the least attractive stocks in a coverage cluster. Analysts assign investment ratings considering, among other things, the 0-12 month total return expectation for a stock and the firm's guidelines for ratings dispersions (shown in the table below). The current price objective for a stock should be referenced to better understand the total return expectation at any given time. The price objective reflects the analyst's view of the potential price appreciation (depreciation).

Investment rating	Total return expectation (within 12-month period of date of initial rating)	Ratings dispersion guidelines for coverage cluster ^{R2}
Buy	≥ 10%	≤ 70%
Neutral	≥ 0%	≤ 30%
Underperform	N/A	≥ 20%

Ratings dispersions may vary from time to time where BofA Global Research believes it better reflects the investment prospects of stocks in a Coverage Cluster.

INCOME RATINGS, indicators of potential cash dividends, are: 7 - same/higher (dividend considered to be secure), 8 - same/lower (dividend not considered to be secure) and 9 - pays no cash dividend. Coverage Cluster is comprised of stocks covered by a single analyst or two or more analysts sharing a common industry, sector, region or other classification(s). A stock's coverage cluster is included in the most recent BofA Global Research report referencing the stock.

BofA ESGMeter Methodology:

ESGMeter is a proprietary metric based on quantitative analysis and fundamental analyst inputs that reflects our assessment of a company's Environmental, Social and Governance-related attributes. The ESGMeter is intended to indicate a company's likelihood of experiencing stronger financial stability (higher return on equity and lower earnings and price volatility) over the next three years relative to peer group. There are three ESGMeter levels - Low, Medium, and High - which indicate whether a company has attributes most likely to translate into superior financial stability (in the case of a High level) or weaker financial stability (in the case of a Low level) over the next three years relative to its peer group. A Medium level suggests that a company exhibits ESG characteristics that are likely associated with financial stability results in line with its peer group over the next three years. Full details of our methodology, financial stability definition and disclaimers are available at BofA ESGMeter methodology. ESGMeter is not indicative of a company's future stock price performance and is not an investment recommendation or rating. ESGMeter is independent of the BofA Global Research fundamental equity analyst's investment rating, volatility risk rating, income rating or price objective for that company.
