4Q23 miss due to higher expense items; large Insurance loss reserve charge

Reiterate Rating: BUY | PO: 551.00 USD | Price: 383.94 USD

Everest reports 4Q23 op. EPS ex-tax benefit of $11.85

This is a miss compared to our forecast of $14.93 and consensus of $14.63. $11.85 excludes a $578mn tax benefit ($13.33/sh) from realized deferred taxes accrued resulting from the change in Bermuda tax law. Underperformance vs. our projection stemmed from a 260bps jump in the expense ratio associated with one-time higher profit commissions due to a significant reserve release in the Reinsurance segment (just under a $2/sh impact). The core loss ratio and the G&A expense ratio exceeded our projection by 50bps and 25bps, respectively (about $0.65/sh).

Reserve strengthening in insurance liability lines

With 4Q23 results, the company recorded a $392mn reserve charge in the Insurance segment related to long-tail lines offset by a $397mn reserve release related to mortgage and short-tail lines in Reinsurance. The Insurance charge relates principally to the "soft market" years of 2016-19. A spate of liability reserve strengthening in 4Q23 insurer results (AXIS, Cincinnati, Markel, Selective) underscores industrywide pressures. However, following new leadership in 2020, Everest took a $400mn charge related to long-tail lines in Reinsurance and nothing in Insurance, asserting a "clean bill of health." Given the confident outlook expressed at the December 2023 investor day event, investors are likely to be negatively surprised by the magnitude of the Insurance charge.

Top line growth exceeds expectations

Net premiums written growth of 21% materially exceeded our forecast of 12%, with beats across both segments. Insurance and Reinsurance growth of +25% and +20% compare vs our estimates of +10% and +13%, respectively. However, our forecasts did not reflect a premium reallocation between the segments introduced in 4Q23 results, somewhat limiting comparability. The company indicates that 1/1 reinsurance renewals were successful, permitting full deployment of the $1.5bn in capital it raised in May. We expect pricing and growth expectations to remain important topics on tomorrow's call.

Price objective to $551, reiterate Buy

Upon integrating 4Q23 results into our model and updating our forecasts, our 2024 EPS projection increases modestly on better top line growth, whereas 2025-26 fall as a lower underwriting margins offset stronger top line growth. Our PO of $551 ($522 prior)is predicated upon 80% of the peer group multiple (10.6 vs 10x prior) on our FY25E EPS estimate. Material upside vs out PO informs our Buy rating.

Company Sector

Insurance - Non-Life

Company Description

Bermuda-domiciled Everest Re represents one of the P&C industry's essential global markets for reinsurance. With an industry low expense ratio and low debt-to-equity leverage the company's business model represents a strong degree of flexibility in a highly capital-consumptive business model. Over the past few years, the company has been aiming to materially grow its footprint in primary specialty commercial insurance.

Investment Rationale

Our Buy rating is based on Everest Re having two of the three characteristics we find ideal for the currently increasing pricing trends in many P&C subsegments: a) reported "soft market" underwriting margins in '15-'18 that suggest initial pick conservatism and a base from which to improve and b) proximity to the parts of the market we believe are experiencing the most material improvements. However, its sizable "soft market" premium growth in '15-'17 partly moderates our enthusiasm.

Price objective basis & risk

Everest Group Ltd (EG)

Our price objective of $551 is based on 80% of the year-ahead multiple for large cap property and casualty (P&C) peers (10.6x). The 20% discount is based on a reversion to the relative multiple where RE has traded in the past, which we also find likely/appropriate given the greater earnings volatility associated with the reinsurance subsector. While there is no impact from a Bermudian income tax in 2024, we are also reducing the multiple by the impact we expect such a tax to have in 2025.

Downside risks are pressure from lower interest rates causing a decline in earnings power and potentially leading the company to miss our EPS expectations, volatility associated with catastrophes also creates the risk of missing or exceeding our EPS outlook, and lawmakers enacting what the industry sees as a retrospective change in coverage to insurance contracts, enfranchising virus-triggered business interruption.

FUNDAMENTAL EQUITY OPINION KEY: Opinions include a Volatility Risk Rating, an Investment Rating and an Income Rating. VOLATILITY RISK RATINGS, indicators of potential price fluctuation, are: A - Low, B - Medium and C - High. INVESTMENT RATINGS reflect the analyst's assessment of both a stock's absolute total return potential as well as its attractiveness for investment relative to other stocks within its Coverage Cluster (defined below). Our investment ratings are: 1 - Buy stocks are expected to have a total return of at least 10% and are the most attractive stocks in the coverage cluster; 2 - Neutral stocks are expected to remain flat or increase in value and are less attractive than Buy rated stocks and 3 - Underperform stocks are the least attractive stocks in a coverage cluster. An investment rating of 6 (No Rating) indicates that a stock is no longer trading on the basis of fundamentals. Analysts assign investment ratings considering, among other things, the 0-12 month total return expectation for a stock and the firm's guidelines for ratings dispersions (shown in the table below). The current price objective for a stock should be referenced to better understand the total return expectation at any given time. The price objective reflects the analyst's view of the potential price appreciation (depreciation).

BofA ESGMeter Methodology:

ESGMeter is a proprietary metric based on quantitative analysis and fundamental analyst inputs that reflects our assessment of a company's Environmental, Social and Governance-related attributes. The ESGMeter is intended to indicate a company's likelihood of experiencing stronger financial stability (higher return on equity and lower earnings and price volatility) over the next three years relative to peer group. There are three ESGMeter levels - Low, Medium, and High - which indicate whether a company has attributes most likely to translate into superior financial stability (in the case of a High level) or weaker financial stability (in the case of a Low level) over the next three years relative to its peer group. A Medium level suggests that a company exhibits ESG characteristics that are likely associated with financial stability results in line with its peer group over the next three years. Full details of our methodology, financial stability definition and disclaimers are available at BofA ESGMeter methodology. ESGMeter is not indicative of a company's future stock price performance and is not an investment recommendation or rating. ESGMeter is independent of the BofA Global Research fundamental equity analyst's investment rating, volatility risk rating, income rating or price objective for that company.
